

WINDING UP AND DISSOLUTION OF LLP

24.1 INTRODUCTION

LLP is a body corporate and an artificial person which is created by a legal process called 'Incorporation' and its existence comes to an end by another legal process called 'Dissolution'. On the dissolution of LLP, its name is struck off from the records of ROC and the fact is published in the official Gazette.

24.2 RULES FOR WINDING UP AND DISSOLUTION OF LLP

1. According to Sec. 65, the Central Government may make rules for the provisions in relation to winding up and dissolution of LLPs.
2. Section 67 of the LLP Act, 2008 confers the powers on the Central Government to direct that any of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 similar or with modifications specified in the notification shall apply to any LLP. The Central Government issued notification vide GSR 6(E), dated 6th January, 2010, directing that certain sections of the Companies Act, 1956 shall apply to winding up of LLPs with modifications specified in the notification.
3. The Central Government has also notified the "Limited Liability Partnership (Winding up and Dissolution) Rules, 2012" vide notification No. [F.No. 1/7/2012-CL-V] dated 10/07/2012. The Annexures to the Rules also contain the forms to be filed and prescribed fees to be paid by the LLP in various circumstances.

24.3 KEY DEFINITIONS

LLP Liquidator. “LLP liquidator” means a liquidator appointed in connection with voluntary winding up of LLP from the panel maintained by the Central Government.

Officer. “Officer” includes any designated partner, partner employee of the LLP and any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the partners of the LLP have been accustomed to act.

Tribunal. “Tribunal” means the National Company Law Tribunal constituted under sub-section (1) of section 10FB of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) [Sec. 2(1)(U)]. Provided that until the tribunal is constituted under the aforementioned Act, the word “Tribunal” shall be substituted with the words “High Court”.

Registrar. “Registrar” means a Registrar, or an additional, or joint, a deputy or an assistant registrar, having the duty of registering companies under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) [Sec. 2(1)(S)].

24.4 MEANING OF WINDING UP

Winding up is a process, where all the assets of the business are disposed of by the LLP liquidator to meet the liabilities of the LLP and surplus if any, is distributed amongst the partners of LLP.

24.5 WINDING UP vs. DISSOLUTION

Basis	Winding up	Dissolution
1. Meaning	Winding up is the process, which brings an end to the life of LLP and creditors are paid off out of the proceeds realized from the sale of assets.	Dissolution is the last stage of liquidation. After many legal compliances the liquidator applies to the court for dissolution order of LLP and then the LLP is dissolved
2. Legal Entity	Winding up is a long process. After, winding up and prior to dissolution the legal existence of the LLP continues and it can be sued by others in a court of law.	On dissolution, LLP ceases to exist and its name is struck off from the records of ROC and the fact is notified in the official gazette.

24.6 MODES OF WINDING UP OF LLP [SEC.63]

Limited Liability Partnership may be wound up in the following ways:

- I. Voluntary Winding up
- II. Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), 2016: Though this code provides steps for restructuring and revival of Corporate Debtor (LLP) yet under certain circumstances NCLT can pass order for liquidation of LLP. Therefore, it is included under the modes of winding up.
- III. Compulsory winding up by the Tribunal.

I. VOLUNTARY WINDING UP

Chapter V of part II of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), 2016 provides for the various provisions for liquidation of corporate persons. According to sec. 59(1) of the code, a corporate person who intends to liquidate itself voluntarily and meets the conditions and procedural requirements as prescribed by IBBI may initiate voluntary liquidation procedure under the provisions of Chapter V of Part II of the IBC, 2016.

The various provisions of secs. 35-53 of the Chapter III and Chapter IV shall apply to voluntary liquidation proceedings for corporate persons with such modifications as may be required. It further provides that if the affairs of the corporate persons have been completely wound up and its assets completely liquidated, the liquidator is required to make an application to Adjudicating Authority, i.e., NCLT for dissolution of such corporate person. The NCLT is the Adjudicating Authority who is Competent to Declare the Corporate Person as dissolved after due liquidation and distribution of its assets.

DEFINITION OF CORPORATE PERSONS

Section 3(7) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 defines and includes Corporate Persons as a Company Registered under the Companies Act, 2013 includes companies incorporated under previous company law and a Limited Liability Partnership registered under the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008.

However, it excludes entities who are financial service providers.

Note: The term 'Corporate person' has been used for Limited Liability Partnership in this chapter.
